Second Suspect Charged in Deadly Hit-and-Run Crash on Airport Drive

UPDATE 3:

(Henrico County, Va.): Henrico Police continues to search for additional people of interest in a deadly hit-and-run crash following the arrest of a second suspect.

On the evening of May 19, 2025, Samarion Ty'shon Seymour, 20, of Norfolk, turned himself into the Petersburg Bureau of Police. Mr. Seymour is the second suspect arrested in connection with the March 22 hit-and-run crash.

Around 2:12 a.m., Henrico Police responded to the intersection of Airport Drive and Audubon Drive for a reported two-vehicle crash. Once on scene, officers located a Toyota Yaris and a Cadillac CTS with significant damage. The adult male driver of the Toyota was pronounced dead at the scene. An adult woman, also in the Toyota, was transported to an area hospital with life-threatening injuries.

During the course of the investigation, Henrico Police and investigators from the New Kent County Sheriff's Office determined Mr. Seymour was the driver of the Cadillac CTS that crashed into the Toyota killing Luis Fernando Cac Caal, 29, of Sandston. The female victim who was hospitalized has since been released.

Mr. Seymour faces the following charges:

- Manslaughter
- Felony Hit-and-Run
- Felony Eluding

Additional charges are forthcoming.

Henrico Police continues to search for additional people of interest who have knowledge of this crash. Anyone with information is asked to contact Henrico Police Crash Investigator T. Holmes at (804) 501-5000. You may also submit tips anonymously via Crime Stoppers at (804) 780-1000 or by using P3tips.com.

NEWS RELEASE

Eric D. English, Chief of Police

On Saturday, March 22, 2025, around 2:12 a.m., Henrico Police responded to the intersection of Airport Drive and Audubon Drive for a reported two-vehicle crash. Once on scene, officers located a Toyota Yaris and a Cadillac CTS with significant damage. The adult male driver of the Toyota was pronounced dead at the scene. An adult woman, also in the Toyota, was transported to an area hospital with life-threatening injuries.

Henrico Police Crash Team Investigators have identified the victim as Luis Fernando Cac Caal, 29, of Sandston. The female victim remains hospitalized in critical condition.

The preliminary investigation indicates the Cadillac CTS was involved in a pursuit which originated on I-64 west in New Kent County. The pursuit traveled into Henrico County where the crash occurred between the Cadillac and Toyota. The occupants inside the Cadillac ran from the scene following the collision.

In the hours after the crash a person of interest was identified. Tony Lamont Roberts, 18, of Hopewell, was taken into custody on March 22 by the Hopewell Police Department. Mr. Roberts currently faces a number of charges in connection to the crash which include:

- Felony Hit-and-Run
- Misdemeanor Eluding
- Obstruction of Justice
- Possession of a Firearm by a felon
- Possession of a Firearm while under a protective order
- Possession of an extended magazine

Henrico Police is grateful for the quick and collaborative efforts of several law enforcement agencies who assisted with this investigation from the onset. Those agencies include the New Kent County Sheriff's Office, Virginia State Police, Hopewell and Petersburg Police Departments. The New Kent County Sheriff's Office will handle the pursuit investigation while Henrico Police investigates the crash.

Anyone with further information regarding this hit-and-run crash is asked to contact officer T. Holmes at (804) 501-5000. You may also submit tips anonymously via Crime Stoppers at (804) 780-1000 or by using P3tips.com.
