Henrico Police Seeks Information in Feb. 2025 Homicide

(Henrico County, Va.) – Henrico Police is seeking new information in connection to a 2025 homicide as the one-year mark since the incident approaches.

On Tuesday, Feb. 4, 2025, at approximately 12:09 a.m., Henrico Police responded to the 5000 block of Charles City Road for a reported medical emergency. Once on scene, officers located an adult male, later identified as Chad Michael Young, 39, of Henrico, in the driver's seat of a vehicle unresponsive. During an assessment of the scene, officers located obvious signs of trauma on the victim; he was pronounced deceased at the scene.

Information gathered during this investigation indicates Mr. Young was sitting in the running vehicle when he was shot by an unknown person or persons. He was discovered later by his family members.

“As we approach the one-year mark of this incident, our detectives are hoping to speak with anyone who may have new information in connection to this case,” said Henrico Police spokesperson Karina Bolster. “Even the smallest detail can sometimes create new leads for our detectives to follow up on.”

Anyone with information on this homicide is asked to contact Henrico Police Det. R. Egan at (804) 501-4878. You can also submit tips anonymously via Crime Stoppers at (804) 780-1000 or by using P3tips.com.
