Henrico Police Resumes Search for Missing Varina Man

Update 2:

(Henrico County, Va.) – Members of the Henrico County Police Division’s Cold Case Review Team are resuming the search for a missing Varina man.

Information gathered in the days after Theo Ever Loving’s disappearance on Sept. 16, 2025, indicates witnesses last saw him walking eastbound in the bike lane around 11:15 a.m. on New Market Road between the 2000-2100 blocks of New Market Road. The now 84-year-old often traveled on foot or rode his bicycle in the area, however, has not been seen since.

“In the last seven months Henrico Police have conducted multiple searches in the area for Mr. Loving and have followed up on a number of tips received from community members,” said Henrico Police spokesperson Karina Bolster. “Unfortunately, officers have not been able to locate him.”

Mr. Loving is described as a white male, approximately 125 lbs, with blonde/white hair and blue eyes. He was last seen wearing a gray t-shirt with a Dairy Queen logo, dark blue jeans and mis-matched shoes.

Anyone with information about Mr. Loving’s whereabouts is asked to call Henrico Police at 804-501-5000 or 911. You may also reach out to the Cold Case Review team by emailing HPDColdCase@henrico.gov.
