Henrico Police Investigates Hilliard Road Homicide

(Henrico County, Va.) – Henrico Police is investigating a homicide that occurred overnight in the Fairfield Magisterial District.

On Friday, October 2, 2026, around 10:30 p.m., Henrico Police responded to the 1600 block of Hilliard Road for a reported shooting. Once on scene, officers located an adult male with obvious signs of trauma in a bedroom; he was pronounced deceased at the scene. While on scene, three adults (one woman, two males) were detained for questioning.

Henrico Police detectives have identified the deceased as Steven Alan Jones, 39, of Gloucester.

The preliminary investigation indicates one of the males and the female had returned home and found Mr. Jones lying in a bed upstairs. The third adult male was home at the time, but didn't report anything suspicious prior to Mr. Jones being discovered in the bedroom. An altercation occurred between the three males which ended with Mr. Jones being shot. It does not appear that Mr. Jones is known to any of the adults involved in the incident.

After consultation with the Henrico County Commonwealth's Attorney's Office and review of the current evidence, no charges will be placed at this time.

Anyone with further information regarding this shooting is asked to contact Det. J. Seay at (804) 501-7323. You can also submit tips anonymously via Crime Stoppers at (804) 780-1000 or by using P3tips.com.
