Junior 4-H Camp

JOIN US AT 4-H CAMP

July 28-Aug 1, 2025

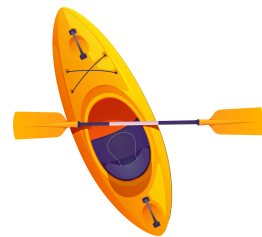

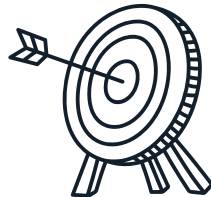

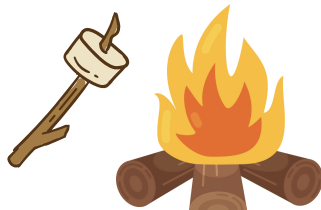

@ Jamestown 4-H Education Center
3751 4-H Club Rd, Williamsburg, VA 23185

WHAT IS 4-H CAMP?

4-H Junior camp provides youth countless opportunities to learn more about themselves, their peers, and the natural world around them. Days are filled with camp classes (archery, kayaking, athletic sports, marine science, challenge course, photography, arts and crafts, and much more!), unstructured recreation and swim time, flag ceremonies, evening programs, and campfires. Our main focus during camp is to help youth develop independence, self-esteem, confidence, interpersonal skills, and other life skills.

DROP OFF & PICK UP

Families are responsible for transporting their youth to and from the Jamestown 4-H Education Center. Specific times will be sent after registration closes to ensure a smooth check-in process. Drop off is on Monday, July 28th and pick-up is on Friday, August 1st. Medication and camp store money is collected at drop-off.

CODE OF CONDUCT

We will make every effort to provide positive, realistic expectations for your child. Youth and parents will sign-off in 4-H Online 2.0 acknowledging that they have read and understand the Code of Conduct. All members of the 4-H community, including staff and campers, are expected to behave responsibly and appropriately at camp. After reasonable efforts to modify behavior, campers that cannot follow the rules of camp, or those that are adversely affecting the experience of others will be dismissed. In this case, it is the parent's responsibility to come to camp to pick up their camper.

Zero Tolerance Policy

For the safety of your child and everyone at camp, Jamestown 4-H Educational Center will not tolerate any of the following:

- Offensive or threatening language
- Bullying (physical or emotional)
- Physical violence/abuse
