The Henrico County Extension Office is offering help for homeowners whose lawns have suffered from the ravages of summer. "Fall Lawn Care Field Days" will offer tips and techniques that work together to create healthy lawns without contributing to water-quality problems in the Chesapeake Bay watershed.

Representatives from area businesses, demonstrating their lawn care products and equipment, will also participate in the event to be held at the Henrico County Human Services Building at 8600 Dixon Powers Drive.

Citizens may register to attend one of two sessions - Thursday, August 14, 5:30 to 9 p.m. or Saturday, August 16, 8:30 a.m. until noon - by calling 672-5160.

For the fifteenth consecutive year, the County of Henrico has won the Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting for its comprehensive annual financial report. This award, granted by the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA), is the highest form of recognition in the area of government accounting and financial reporting.

As the individual primarily responsible for the preparation of this award-winning report, Accounting Section Manager Mourad Ewees won an Award of Financial Reporting Achievement.

The GFOA is a nonprofit professional association serving 12,625 government finance officers. Financial reports are judged by a panel, and must meet program standards including "a spirit of full disclosure," according to the GFOA guidelines.
