Fairfield District Supervisor Frank Thornton will host a tour of Henrico's Wastewater Treatment Plant for his next constituent meeting on Monday, June 9. Tour guests will be transported to the Wastewater Treatment Plant on buses originating from the Government Center Administration Building parking lot, 4301 East Parham Road. The buses will depart promptly at 6:30 p.m.

Members of the County's Public Utilities staff will be available for questions and comments throughout the tour.

Those residents who want to attend, call Mikki Knight at 672-4208 to reserve a bus seat by June 4.

Thornton encourages public participation at all of his constituent meetings, and asks that each participant invite three other people to join the tour (each person attending must reserve a bus seat).

Tuckahoe District Supervisor Patricia S. O'Bannon will hold a town meeting on Tuesday, May 20, at 7 p.m., at the Gayton Library, 10600 Gayton Road. She will discuss volunteer opportunities for teenagers and adults, as well as summer activities for children of all ages.

"Henrico County is full of fun activities for teenagers, children and adults," O'Bannon said. "Whether it's children participating in a summer reading program, or adults volunteering their time to one of our recreational programs, we want to let our residents know how they can become involved," she said.

Staff members from the County's Division of Recreation and Parks and the Public Libraries will be on hand to give Tuckahoe residents information about the programs, what they encompass, and how to volunteer or register.

O'Bannon's town meetings are open to the public.
